

Code book for the Constitution project on Child Rights. February 2, 2024.

Main codes	Subcodes	2. subcodes
Adoption Mention of rights or rules regulating adoption, and/or mentions of State support for adoption, and/or mentions of values or norms in relation to adoption.
Child development Mentions of either child and/or adolescents right to development including physical, mental and intellectual developments.	Full development as a right
	Parents duty
	The state promotes and protects children's full development
Children with disabilities Mention of the rights of children with any type of disabilities.	Rights in the form of specialized education and social integration
	The state's responsibility to protect
Childs best interest Mention of the principle of the best interests of the child/ well-being of the child.
Concept of children Concept of children or youth or adolescents used to categorize individuals under the age of 18ys
CRC enforcement Mention of the signature and constitutionality of the CRC (whether citing its name or "international conventions ratified" regarding the rights of children and/or young people).
Duty to help parents Mention of the children's and young people's duty of aiding their parents.
Employment Mention of the minimum legal age to work, limits on the employment of children and/or special protection and labour rights.	Child labor (and or exploitation) prohibited
	Limits on working hours, protection from dangerous work
	Mentions a minimum legal age to work
	Special protection
	The state guarantee and promotes youth in employment
Participation Mention of the rules and/or State support for the political participation of children and/or young people. And/ or mention of children's and young people's possibility to express themselves and be heard as their right	Political participation Mention of the rules and/or State support for the political participation of children and/or young people.	The state promotes and encourage youth participation
		The State protects and guarantees youth the right to participation
	Right to self-expression Mention of children's and young people's possibility to express themselves and be heard as their right.	Youth voting
		Self-expression as a right Self-expression in accordance with age and maturity
Protection from abuse and maltreatment Includes mentions of a child's right to protection from abuse, maltreatment, violence and exploitation. The category also includes protection for abandoned and orphaned children. And, mentions of criteria for loss of parenting capacity.	Loss of parenting capacity Mention to State action in case the parents prove incapable of caring for their children.	Deprivation or limitation of parental rights based of failed parental duty
		Deprivation or limitation of parental rights based on the best interests of a child
		Legality
	Protection for abandoned and orphaned children Mention of the protection by the State of children and young people without family as their right.	Protection from violence and exploitation Mention of the protection by the family, society, and State from physical, psychological, economic, sexual and/or any other type of violence and exploitation as a right of children and young people.	Right to appropriate alternative care when removed from family
			Right to special protection (care)
			Social security for orphaned children
			The state renders necessary (supplements) aid
			Under the care and protection of the state
			Duty of family to protect children
	Measures against violence Right to be protected (the state shall protect) from violence The right to physical and psychological integrity Violence against children is prohibited and or is punishable

Protection from discrimination Mention of the protection by the State of children and young people from any kind of discrimination as their right, including born out of wedlock and sex.	Equal rights
	Equal treatment before the law
	Gender
	Protection by the state from discrimination
	Wedlock	No discrimination (and or equal rights) Parental duty and obligation towards children born out of wedlock
Right to a name and nationality Mention of children's and young people's access to have a name (including family name) as their right, and or mentions of a child's right to nationality.	Name
	Nationality	Nationality as a right Nationality by being born in country (and or by citizens)
Right to education Mention of children's and young people's access to formal education as their right, this code also includes mentions of parents and/or the state's obligation to ensure education to their child.	Education as a right
	Guarantee (and or provide) education
	Parents obligation (and or duty) to ensure education for children
	Special protection
Right to family life Mention of children's and young people's access to parental care and family life (whether biological or adoptive) and/or to the knowledge of their paternity and ancestry as their right.	Access to parental care and family life as their right
	Children should not be separated from their parents
	Knowledge of children ancestry as their right
	Separation of child and parent
Right to health Mention of children's and young people's access to health care as their right.	Health care as a duty of the state
	Health care as a right
	The state as a guarantee for health care
Right to life Mentions of a child's right to life and/or a child's right to life from conception.	Right to life Mention of children's and young people's lifetime guarantee and protection as their right.	Life as a right The state protects the right to life
	Right to life from conception Mention of the protection of fetuses' life since their conception.	Abortion is unlawful (and or only in accordance with the law) Right-bearing subject from time of conception The state protects the person from the time of conception
Social rights Mention of children's and young people's access to a house to live in as their right. Mention of children's and young people's access to food and nutrition as their right. Mention of children's and young people's access to social security policies and services as their right.	Right to housing Mention of children's and young people's access to a house to live in as their right.	Government providing Housing as a right Housing as special protection Parents obligation (and or responsibility)
	Right to nutrition Mention of children's and young people's access to food and nutrition as their right.	Food and nutrition as a right Parents duty (and or obligation)
	Right to social security Mention of children's and young people's access to social security policies and services as their right.	Social security as a right The state as a guarantee
Special judicial rights Mention of children's and youth's access to special judicial rights, whether as having access to separate criminal procedures, free or special legal assistance, or being awarded exceptions to the publicity of court decisions. Furthermore, special procedures or thresholds or arrangements for children. Mention of restrictions to the rights of children.	Exceptions to the publicity of court decisions (and or proceedings)
	Free or special legal assistance
	In case of detention and or arrest, allowed communication with parents
	Limits on individual rights	Education and or welfare/ child protection Bringing before competent body
	Preferential and or special treatment (on the part of judicial, administrative and police authorities) and or specialized personnel
	Segregated from adults in case of sentence and or detention
	Treatment and conditions adapted to their age
Special protection by the State Mention of the duty of the State to afford special protection to children and/or young people.	Abandonment
	Protection of child (and mother, father and or family)
	Right to special protection (care)	